Egg. J. H. Green, the reformed gambler, it leavering just now in Chicago. Green is a man of very limited sequitemants, is without noish or refluenciats, but still his managed to build binnel? a wide spread reputation, such as it is. He is the foughted suchor of three or four works of interest, but the real author, we believe, of itom. At all events, we know that ten year agon be was certainly a magnificent "humbug," who was certainly a magnificent "humbug," be should never be paid for the distant leak by such a character, and our confidence was low in the present editors of the Davenper Gasafte for assistance in preparing a work of his for the press, which do to see the press, which do to s sojourning in this city for the purpose or anything on citizens that he "knew a trick or ise," at carda, but the 'trick attempted of scenting gratuitous advertising by abuning the newspapers an wherein he failed. We doubt it he has appeared before a Chicago audience since his present visit without polaring visits of wrath upon the newspapers in general, and courselves fir particular, 'sligging that we were bought up be the Qamblers. Boah! Mr. Green, 'if card playing had no other, wit than by its resction maintaining you at the public argonacy, it were abundant reason why cards about the discovery in the same time in different blacks as the Judges of said court thay direct. But all cases and politic reserved at thats, hills of exceptions, and demurrers to evidence, motions in arrest of course private lessons by the soute Mr. Green would go largely towards mending the morality of the presures. These is a better reason why gambling should be abandoned and discountenanced, and it is one which does not head the experience past, or the sysperience present, or the sysperience present of the ladice connected with this Church were to hold a feet of the correct transaction of the city, near Twenth street, where it was combined to the correct transaction with the ladice connected. A suit has recently been decided in Richmond of great interest to Fiour Inspectors. It has been the rule for years that the dross for non-sidered the perquisites of the inspectors, and when heavy inspections are made, these "hop-singer draws" shound to a countdershile tell. The case in Richmond was decided by Jodge Merodith, who said that a Flour Inspector has no legal right to retain the floor drawn in the process of inspecting. Granshaw and Father, of Richmond, served a present against the preside upon D. St. Delaplane, on Jan. 1st, 1865, and order for "draft floor" retained by him since that paried to July, 1866. The uvesage value of the "draft floor" we beweld its stame assum-mating the receipts of the office in 1848, when $50,000 barrals were Inspecting $19.500 groun. The Judge and jury went to the mills, and saw the flour inspected in the usual manner—the "draft" being from saven and three-fourths to tag and a half connec. PRESS AND TRIBI

SATURDAY MORNING, PERSUARY

It is not generally known, but is ner a fact, that Wentworth desired the pa the infamous Lecompton Charter. the infamous Lecompton Charter. He penned a paragraph against it for his Every article that appeared in the Democ opposition to the ensetment of that infasheme, was inserted by his employees. Worth wasted it passed. His object was to off Peck and Judd," to use his own ergor His animesities towards those gentlemen virsient that he was perfectly willing people of Chicago should be plundered of property and distranchised of their right government, provided he could lead a vengetal aphea against those gent Had that swindling Charter become a would have enabled Wentworth to hav lowed through his paper, that "its case would have enabled Wentworth to hav lowed through his paper, that "its case "was the result of the despension of the "County delegation; that, had be been a "ber it could not have passed; that, had "other men been elected in their stem "thing would not have been imposed o "tax-payers; that this dire calcanity soo "have happened had his opinions and "been followed in making choice of repre"tives," Ac. &c.

Shortly before the meeting of the Legis Wentworth called on Tom Dyer one Sand told him, that as his party had the power Legislature, he was a great fool if he did a through a charter that would give him can the city government. Having than egg Thomas, he next wrote a sarticle for his-saying that the people need give themsel

Thomas, he next wrote as article for his-saying that the people need give themsal uneasiness about the Lecompton Charter, Cook County delegation could easily def that if Ac was in the Legislature he would no trouble in seating it. After laying his and placing a slow march to M, he left tow went to Troy, N. T., so that he might be at distance when the explosion should take. There he spent his time in writing back at abbeing the Sizat Travers, and wasting into abosing the State Trustee, and waiting im ly for the passage of the Lecempton C Finding that his fireworks old not go of expected, he meaked home the other day a pect around for an opening for new mi Wentworth Urging the Payment Leavitt Clurm. Since last fall Wentworth has write little for his paper except abuse of the old grudge agalest the Trustee, and take method of gratifying his gnawing asim Had Wentworth been State Trustee, we his own deliberate declaration that he have voted for the allowance of the move voted for the allowance of the c Every paragraph he has recently publi against its payment, is the emerge of he risy. To injure Mr. Ray he is willing to tify himself. No man in Illinois eva pressed himself more strongly or unqual by in favor of paying the Leavitt claim, this selfsame Wentworth, who is now ch
